4. No prosecution for an offence under Section 101 of the Indian Railways Act (IX of 1890) shall be instituted by a police officer without the sanction of the Superintendent of Railway Police, which shall be communicated immediately it is accorded to the Agent or the Manager of the Railway.

RULES AND ORDERS UNDER ACT XVI OF 1861.

STAGE CARRIAGES.

RULES FOR THE REGULATION OF STAGE CARRIAGES PLYING FOR HIRE BETWEEN TATTA AND JUNGSHAHI.

Commissioner, Notn. No. 789, dated 9th September 1901, S. O. G., 1901, Pt. I, p. 562.

In exercise of the powers of a Local Government conferred upon him under sections 20-A and 23 of the Stage Carriages Act XVI of 1861 by Government Notification No. 6639, dated 1st October 1900, the Commissioner in Sind is pleased to issue the following rules for the regulation of stage carriages plying for hire between Tatta and Jungshahi :—

Rules.

1. Licenses under section 2 of the Act shall be issued by the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, and for each such license the proprietor of the stage carriage shall pay a fee of Rs. 2. Licenses for six months may be issued on payment of half the above rates. Licenses may be granted for six months or for one year, provided that all licenses will require renewal before the 31st December each year for a further period.

2. Such licenses shall be in the form hereto annexed (Form A).

3. A register shall be kept in which shall be entered a description of every stage carriage licensed under these rules which has been inspected and approved for use as a stage carriage.

4. Before a license is issued or renewed for any carriage under these rules, the carriage shall be produced before the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, or other officer appointed by him in this behalf, to whom shall be furnished all the information required for filling up the register and the license.

5. Every holder of a license issued under these rules shall produce or cause to be produced the carriage with horse or horses, as the case may be, for which the license is given for inspection by the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, or by an officer appointed by him in this behalf, at any time he may be called on to do so during the currency of the license, unless at the time engaged or plying for hire.

6. The proprietor of every stage carriage licensed under these rules—shall, whenever he may change his residence or head office, give notice in writing to the Sub-Divisional Magistrate of such change within one week thereof; and shall not transfer or lend to any person any license granted under these rules without obtaining an endorsement in writing from the Sub-Divisional Magistrate on the reverse of such license sanctioning such transfer or loan.

7. No horse shall be driven in a day of 24 hours more than the journey from Jungshahi to Tatta and back or vice versa, and no horse shall be used for a return journey unless it shall have had at least two hours' rest.

8. The Superintendent of Police, the Inspector of Police, Jerruck Division, and the senior Táluka Magistrate shall have power to suspend the license for any carriage licensed under these rules in respect of which any of the above rules have been infringed or the conditions of the license broken but shall forthwith report his action to the Sub-Divisional Magistrate for orders.

The suspension of a license shall have the same effect until the orders of the Sub-Divisional Magistrate are obtained as the cancellation of a license.

9. A license may be cancelled by the Sub-Divisional Magistrate on a second conviction of the holder of the license for any offence against the rules or for infringement of the conditions of the license.

Every conviction shall be entered in the license and noted in the register.

10. The Sub-Divisional Magistrate may, in his discretion, decline to issue a license under these rules to any one who has or whose servants or agents have been convicted more than once for offences against the rules or provisions of the Act.

11. Every proprietor of stage carriage licensed under these rules, or agent of such proprietor, or driver who shall disobey the provisions of the Rules 6 and 7, or knowingly permit them to be disobeyed and every proprietor who shall disobey the provisions of Rule 5, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.
